All other words and expressions used but not defined in this Policy, but defined in the Listing Regulations, SEBI Act, 1992, Companies Act, 2013, the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, the Depositories Act, 1996 and/or the rules and regulations made thereunder shall have the same meaning as respectively assigned to them in such Acts or rules or regulations or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereto, as the case may be.

3. Objective of the Policy

The objectives of this Policy are as follows:

- a. To ensure that the Company complies with the disclosure obligations to which it is subject as a publicly-traded company as laid down by the Listing Regulations, various Securities Laws and any other legislations
- b. To ensure that the information disclosed by the Company is adequate, timely and transparent
- c. To ensure that all investors have equal access to important information that may affect their investment decisions
- d. To protect the confidentiality of material / price sensitive information within the context of the Company's disclosure obligations
- e. To provide a framework that supports and fosters confidence in the quality and integrity of information released by the Company and avoiding establishment of false market in the securities of the Company
- f. To ensure uniformity in the Company's approach to disclosures, raise awareness and reduce the risk of selective disclosures
- g. To determine the principles of materiality based on which the Company shall make disclosures of events or information

4. Disclosure of Events or Information

The disclosure covered under this Policy shall be for events or information related to the Company's business, operations, performance and for any such events or information determined as per clause VI (Guidelines for Assessing Materiality) of this Policy, that the Company is required to disclose in a timely and appropriate manner as prescribed under clause 7 (Guidance on Timing of an Event or Information) of this Policy.

5. Person responsible for disclosure

The Board of Directors of the Company have authorised the Managing Director & CEO, the Executive Directors, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary ("Authorised Persons"), to determine the materiality of an event or information and to make appropriate disclosure on a timely basis.

Authorised Persons in consultation with the respective Operations/ HOD will decide on the materiality based on the Criteria for determination of materiality of the event/information including the information forming part of Annexure 1 and Annexure 2 to the Policy.

On completion of the assessment, the Authorized Persons shall, if required, make appropriate disclosure(s) to the Stock Exchanges.

The Authorised Persons shall take decisions in this regard with consensus, provided however that where consensus cannot be reached in reasonable time, with regard to urgency of the matter, Managing Director & CEO shall take the final decision.

Authorised Persons shall have the following powers and responsibilities, jointly and severally, for determining the material events or information :

- a. To review and assess an event or information that may qualify as ‘material’ and may require disclosure, on the basis of facts and circumstances prevailing at a given point in time
- b. To determine the appropriate time at which the disclosures are to be made to the stock exchanges based on an assessment of actual time of occurrence of an event or information
- c. To disclose developments that are material in nature on a regular basis, till such time the event or information is resolved/ closed, with relevant explanations
- d. To consider such other events or information that may require disclosure to be made to the stock exchanges which are not explicitly defined in the Listing Regulations and determine the materiality, appropriate time and contents of disclosure for such matters.

6. Guidelines for Assessing Materiality

Materiality will be determined on a case to case basis depending on the facts and the circumstances pertaining to the event or information.

- A. Event or information that is to be disclosed without any application of the guidelines for materiality are specified in Annexure 1 to this Policy. (As specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations)
- B. Event or information that is to be disclosed based on materiality principle are specified in Annexure 2 to this Policy. (As specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the listing Regulations.)

The following criteria shall be applicable for determination of materiality of the event or information:

- a) The omission of an event or information which is likely to:
 - result in a discontinuity or alteration of an event already available publicly; or
 - result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
- b) In the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company/ the Authorised Persons, the event / information ought to be disclosed; or
- c) The omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - i. two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
 - ii. two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - iii. five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;

- d) As specified in Para C of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations, the Company shall promptly disclose any other information/event viz., major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the financial statements of the Company and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

7. Guidelines on timing of disclosure an event or information

The Company shall first disclose to the stock exchange(s) all events or information which are material in terms of this Policy as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than the following:

- (i) thirty minutes from the closure of the meeting of the board of directors in which the decision pertaining to the event or information has been taken;
- (ii) twelve hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is emanating from within the Company;
- (iii) twenty-four hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is not emanating from within the Company:

Provided that disclosure with respect to events for which timelines been specified in Annexure I shall be made within such timelines

Further, the Company may be confronted with the question as to when an event/information can be said to have occurred. In certain instances, the answer to above question would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval and in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions etc, and the answer to the above question would depend upon the timing when the Company became aware of the event/information. In the former, the events/information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of Board of Directors or as may be decided by the Authorized persons.

However, considering the price sensitivity involved, for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board of Directors, pending Shareholder's approval. In the latter, the events/information can be said to have occurred when the Company becomes aware of the events/information, or as soon as, Relevant Employee of the Company has, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties.

8. Policy Review

The Authorized Persons may review the Policy from time to time. Material Changes to the Policy will need the approval of the Board of Directors.

Should there be any inconsistency between the terms of the Policy and the Listing Regulations, the provisions of the Listing Regulations shall prevail.

Any amendments to the Listing Obligations shall mutatis mutandi be deemed to have been incorporated in this Policy.

9. Website

As per the provisions of the Listing Regulations, the Policy shall be disclosed on the website of the Company. Further, the Company shall disclose on its website all such events or information which has been disclosed to stock exchange(s) under the Listing Regulations and such disclosures shall be made available on the website of the Company for a period of five years and thereafter as per the archival policy of the Company.

10. Contact details
